MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Review Staff/OP

SUBJECT : Field Repositories of Classified Information

As you requested, attached is the copy of Recruitment Field Directory giving complete addresses of the offices of Field Recruiters.

25X1A6a

All other offices are equipped with safes with combination locks for the storage of classified information.

Except for Mrs. [REDACTED] there is little occasion for recruiters to keep classified information in their homes. The exception to this would be when a recruiter leaves his office in the evening and is going to start on a trip from his home the next morning, in which case he may carry the necessary papers with him in his locked attache case.

The highest classification of material sent to recruiters is SECRET.
